Describe your qualifications and interest in serving on this Board/Commission/Committee:

My back ground includes art as a focal point throughout my life. I studied art in Italy for 7 months in 1975. My career after college was working on the first computer generated system creating high end graphics in the late 70's. I was a ^{computer} graphic designer for 21 years doing all and most graphic arts applications including animation. I diverted to holistic healing for 12 yrs and then became to save 2 houses from foreclosure. I have lived in Capitola for exactly one year now. I am producing art of the beauty and joy that I find here. I am currently reading "The Hidden Hand" whom Capitola is the character. I must say I am intrigued with Capitola! That is why I am interested in being on this board.
