

New Capitola Police Officer sworn in BRANTLY SANDRETTI Wednesday, January 7, 2015

The Police Department has welcomed Officer Brantly Sandretti to its sworn ranks of patrol. Officer Sandretti started his career with the City of Capitola in 2011 as a temporary Parking Enforcement Officer and as a volunteer Explorer. He would later become a full time Community Service Officer patrolling the Village and Esplanade area. Officer Sandretti attended the Basic Police Academy as a non-affiliate and then completed the training program to become a Reserve Police Officer. Officer Sandretti has been working as a Reserve Officer since June of 2014. It has been Officer Sandretti's dream to be a Police Officer for the City of Capitola. Officer Sandretti fills the vacancy left by the retirement of Sergeant Matt Eller. Officer Sandretti lives in Santa Cruz and was accompanied at the swearing in by his father, several close family members and friends. Congratulations and welcome aboard!
