

Capitola Police Officer sworn in ARON QUOLAS

Tuesday, October 4, 2016

The Capitola Police Department is proud to announce that Aron Quolas was sworn in as a new police officer. Aron is 23 years old was born and raised in Santa Cruz, California. He graduated from Soquel High School and is currently attending Cabrillo College. Aron recently graduated from the South Bay Police Academy and is starting his first phase of the Field Training Program. Aron lives in Live Oak and his hobbies are, playing and coaching hockey for the youth AAA team called the Silicon Valley Quakes and spending time with his family.