

Capitola Police Officer sworn in
SCOTT NEWTON
Wednesday, October 12, 2016

The Capitola Police Department is proud to announce that Scott Newton was sworn in as a new police officer. Scott is 24 years old was born and raised in Stockton, California. He spent a majority of his summers growing up in Capitola. Scott graduated with a bachelor's degree in Political Science from Santa Clara University and completed the South Bay Police Academy in December 2015. Scott has completed his orientation week of training and has begun the first phase of the Field Training Program. He lives in Aptos and his hobbies are, reading, enjoys spending time of the beach, the gym and spending quality time family and friends.